MASSACHUSETTS WIDOWS MARRYING TRAMPS, -Within a few months, and in a radins of nine miles from here, I can call to mind three or four widows, comfortably well off, who have married chaps that came tramping along. A while ago you coticed the case of the South wick woman who committed this folly, and whose husband is now in jail for threatening the lives of his wife and mother in law. His favorite form of amusement was to place the "women folks" in chairs side by side, and, after poking a leaded gun into their faces, to fire it off at a target above their heads. Five weeks ago a respectable and well connected woman in this town, whose husband died less than two years ago, leaving her a nice little home and some $2,000 in cash, "got stuck" on a young loved him dearly, and that he only whipped her when he was mad because she wouldn't at first give him money or buy him a horse and carriage. Ibrahim Pacha, a son of Mehemit Ali, raised an army in Palestine in argumentation of the Egypto-Syrian forces, and in so doing stripped many a house of its bread-winner. One day a woman solicited an interview with Ibrahim at Akka. This being granted she said: "O, my lord, look with bity on thy servant, and hear my prayer. A little while ago there were three men in my house-my husband, my brother and my eldest son; but now, beheld they have been carried away to serve in your army, and 1 am left with my little ones without a protector I pray you grant liberty to one of these men, that he may remain at home." Ibrahim, taking compassion on her, asked which of the three she would prefer to see libersted. She replied: "My lord, give me my brother."
